

Please reject petition 04-160, filed by the NAB. It is a blatant attempt to stifle competition and protect an outmoded and dated business model. As a paying consumer of XM radio, I am entitled to support those vendors who provide me the most value-added service, which traditional radio absolutely does not. The FCC is not in the business of protecting tired monopolies from new entrants, and should not give that impression regarding this petition. Thank you.